THE POET HAS SPOKEN... UNCLE GREG'S WORDS FOR JUSTIN'S BIRTHDAY

SEPTEMBER 16, 2019 SUSAN TOLER-CARR 2 COMMENTS

My brother Greg in his consistent manor penned a poem in honor of Justin's 23rd Birthday. I just saw it this morning in my unopened email and it is worth sharing. Thank you Greg for finding the words.

Celebrate Today and Make a Difference Each Day in Between

Every year our birthday is the one day we look forward to celebrate.

365 days in between each one sure is a long time to wait.

Do you twiddle your thumbs counting the hours and days until your special day arrives?

Or do you wake up each day and continue to thrive?

Some wish for special things to make their day complete.

Others do things that change lives even for strangers they just happen to meet.

"Every day is a day of Thanksgiving," a wise man once said.

So, there's no reason that we all can't make a difference as soon as we exit our beds.

I also know a wise young man who had a special way of celebrating between his special day.

He continues to inspire us all in many ways.

So, when you blow out your candles on that three-layer cake.

Wish for some ways that you can make a difference for goodness sake.

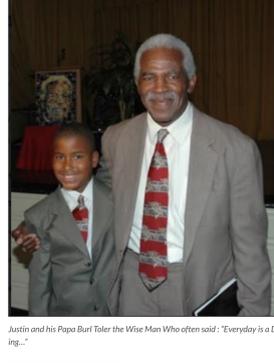

Happy Birthday Justin, you're sure one of a kind and your presence will never cease.

And one day I truly believe we will achieve world peace!

2 THOUGHTS ON "THE POET HAS SPOKEN...UNCLE GREG'S WORDS FOR JUSTIN'S BIRTHDAY"

Patricia Trapp-Hedgepeth APRIL 6, 2020 AT 6:08 PM I can't believe Justin would have turned 23 this past September! I love what his grandfather said, "Every day is a day of thanksgiving!"
